Death of a French Senator

Paris, April 16—De Kerdea senator is dead.

The Louisville Courier Journal [illegible] discouraged at the prospect of the D[illegible] party, and calls it a riff raff of [illegible] thinks the party's present situation [illegible] pects must be the subject of ser[illegible] son, with all thoughtful D[illegible] says "It has been the v[illegible] the leadership It has an infir[illegible] ment of politicians and a weak [illegible] divided on immaterial points [illegible] ous as to personalities it is [illegible] such petty favorites as have met its approval

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

A Grand Privateering Scheme

New York April 16—The Herald cable says The [illegible] of last evening says edi[illegible] [illegible] that the [illegible] at private rs in America is making rapid progress A large number of seamen belonging to the Bri[illegible] fleet are [illegible] to the United States at a moments [illegible] It is rumored Grand Duke Alexis will be appointed admiral of the private r [illegible] and that during his recent visit to New York the project was thoroughly can vassed in the event of war with England The idea of forming a powerful fleet in America is very popular throughout Russia because it is thought a severe blow can be given to English commerce at its very center namely its carrying trade from the United States The scheme causes intense delight among all the Baltic sea men

Friendlier Talk

London April 16—A St Petersburg corre spondent telegraphs that there is said to have been an amicable semi official interchange of views between London and St Petersburg cabi nets The former declares a sincere desire for a peaceful solution and disclaims the wish to put unnecessary obstacles in the way of ne gotiations, but adheres to the desire to have the whole treaty placed before the congress The latter also adheres to its previous attitude and cites Prince Gortschakoff's reply to Lord Salisbury as proof of a readiness to discuss even the most important clauses In unoffi cial conversation Russians still cling to the idea that England seeks to humiliate them and tear up the treaty They will not allow the treaty to be canceled although they are ready to make modifications A preliminary conference seems to be the most promising issue out of the difficulty

Uneasiness among the Turks

Pera April 16—There was manifest un easiness on Sunday and Monday lest the Rus sians should attempt a coup de main against Constantinople The suspicion is only trace able to the general discontent of the Russians at the prolonged uncertainty Organizing the General Levy.

Berlin April 16—Preparations are mak ing in Russia for the organization of the gen eral levy Passports will only be issued to persons over 40 years of age

When Germany will Mediate

Vienna April 16—According to Berlin ad vices Germany will only really attempt pa cific intervention when all is prepared on both sides so as to insure almost certain suc cess The first step in the direction of mediation seems to have been in obtaining some authority to undertake the task and all these preliminary difficulties seem to be overcome There is much more confidence in a meeting of the congress

Another Report Denied

Berlin, April 15—The Roumanian agent here officially denies the report that Prince Gortschakoff requested the recall of the Rou manian agent at Vienna

Prince Milan's Movements.

Belgrade April 15—Prince Milan is ex pected to start for Nisch on Thursday He will probably issue a proclamation

Suleiman's Trial.

Constantinople April 15—The trial of Suleiman Pasha has commenced His con demnation is regarded as extremely probable

No Change in the Eastern Question.

London April 16—In the house of com mons this evening Sir Stafford Northcote re plying to the inquiry of Mr Foster said the situation is an anxious one but nothing has occurred to aggravate it or to diminish the hope of a satisfactory arrangement Nothing justifies the assertion that England will be isolated A circular is expected from Turkey to the powers There is good prospect of an arrangement in Thessaly and Epirus through the good offices of England

St Petersburg April 16—The Journal de St Petersburg states that negotiations with England and Austria are progressing

London, April 16—The fact that the cab inets at London and St Petersburg have re sorted to semi official intercourse seems to in dicate official expressions would only have intensified their differences The result of an interchange of views is not hopeful Russia repeating her former answer and England re affirming the principles originally laid down

The Austro-Russian Agreement Denied

The report of an Austro Russian agree ment under pressure from Bismarck is denied by Andrassy's friends who declare Bismarck's attitude has been one of neutrality as between Russia and Austria he well un derstanding that the margin for mediation is exceedingly narrow The reports about Russia having sent a reply to Austria's ob jections are contradicted It is stated in Vienna that the emperor and military party are stronger than Count Andrassy and will support his anti Russian policy Among a large class of Austrians a belief prevails that Austria has nothing to gain by peace or war because Hungary would resist the annexation of Slav countries, but that action will be forced on the monarchy if the Russians attempt to disarm or occupy Roumania There is no necessity for us to declare war against her, and it is to the last degree im probable government will resort to a declara tion of war It will be sufficient for them to continue the armaments to occupy certain points of territory not necessarily provocative of a collision with the Russian force and keep Russia in her present position that is with the unrecognized treaty in her possession, but no other gain from the war but such as she can retain by actual physical possession at ruinously increasing cost and there to let her remain until she returns to a sense of her duty to Europe

Bismarck is Neutral.

Bismarck's reported answer to the Rou manian prime minister is confirmed by a statement in the Norddeutsch Zeitung as follows Bratiano must have known before his arrival here that Germany is not disposed to sub ordinate her own relations to Russia to her regard for the wishes of Roumania in the Bessarabian question which does not touch German interests

Russia Takes a Conciliatory Step.

London April 16—A special from Vienna says news has reached there that Grand Duke Nicholas returns to St. Petersburg and that Gen Todleben goes to St Stefano to assume chief command This is considered a conciliatory step

Drifting to War—Turkish Sensation

Pro-Russian advices from Constantinople say the situation is strained to the utmost that Grand Duke Nicholas is much depressed, and that the impression prevails that affairs are surely drifting to war

Turkish Troops Ordered Home

Ragusa, April 16—All the Turkish regular troops in Bosnia and Herzegovina have been ordered to concentrate at Mitrovitza whence they will retire to Salonica, and from there to Constantinople

England Negotiating for a Naval Station in the Baltic.

Vienna April 16—Politische Correspondenz says [illegible] that England is [illegible] with Sweden for a naval station on the island of [illegible] in the Baltic sea

The Danube Open

Bucharest April 16 [illegible] Danube is now open to its entire course

Papers Warned

St Petersburg April [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] attempted assassination [illegible] [illegible] other journals has been [illegible]

Russia and Roumania

Bucharest April [illegible] [illegible] start [illegible] between Russia and Roumania on [illegible] has prevented a train laden with ammunition from leaving

But hard for the [illegible] army [illegible] [illegible] with stones [illegible] [illegible]

War Talk from Constantinople

Constantinople April 16 [illegible] war [illegible] Austria [illegible] Russia will [illegible] the Bosphorus [illegible] Russia will [illegible] the Bosphorus or anything [illegible] except the fortresses and attack Austria from Gallipoli, Roumania and Bosnia [illegible] Turks have 7000 men here and 17 000 at Gallipoli and will doubtless resist an at tempt to enter the capital but the attitude is now neutral Prince Merska and Sk[illegible] and [illegible] Fever is prevalent in the camp [illegible] and fretful on account of not being allowed to go home

MORE OF MRS. TILTON'S CONFESSION.

How it Came to be Published—Friends of Both Parties Interviewed—An Emphatic Denial from Beecher—He is Interviewed by a Reporter—The Beginning of the End

New York April 16—The Tribune says Mr Wheeler called at the Tribune office yes terday afternoon with the original docu ment of Mrs Tilton's confession and submit ted it for publication There was no question of the genuine character of the document no matter under what circumstances it had been obtained and promulgated and at Mr Wheel er's suggestion and wish it was put in type

The Tribune reporter subsequently had an interview with Mr Wheeler but he was very reticent He stated that he was a distant rel ative of Mrs Tilton He said he was very reluctant to be known in any connection with the matter and that in fact his only connec tion was in submission of the document for publication Mrs Tilton had at once author ized and requested him to see that it was pub lished He added he did not feel at liberty to state any of the circumstances which had led to a confession About four weeks ago Mrs Tilton had verbally made the confession in detail to Mrs Anna M Field and four other ladies of Plymouth church stating all the circumstances of various adulteries and about the same time she had written a letter to the same import to certain members of Plymouth church probably the same persons This letter he could not furnish and he said it was of such a confidential character that it was not likely to be published At the same time or about that time he had read a private let ter from Mrs Tilton but could not think of publishing it The document given now to the public was all he was authorized to pub lish

Mr Wheeler was asked "Does not Mr Tilton know of this confession?" "Em phatically not" he replied Mr Tilton says truly when he states he has not made overtures for a reconciliation with his wife I wish you would state this positively A gentleman who was prominently connected with the defense in Beecher's suit on being shown a proof slip of the letter after reading it carefully without evincing any surprise looked up and said "Well!" On being asked his opinion of it he at first declined to express any, but subsequently remarked that Mr Beecher's friends had expected some thing of the kind for some time As to the statement of Wheeler to whom the letter was addressed that Tilton did not know of its existence the gentleman remarked with a smile "That would be the way he would go to work Frequently during the winter" said he "Mr Beecher has been applied to for money to aid Mrs Tilton—the request or demand not technically coming from her nor purporting to be made with her knowl edge or consent but for her benefit This demand was accompanied by threats and in timations that if it was not met something would turn up Mr Tilton's influence over his wife is very great" this gentleman continued "she cannot resist it" A gentleman living near Mrs Morse and Mrs Tilton and inti mately acquainted with both says "The events of the last few months have led me to be lieve arrangements for a reconciliation be tween Tilton and wife have been completed He frequently sent a carriage to Morse's house for his sons meeting them on Yates avenue two or three blocks away, and after a drive of several hours the boys would return alone On one occasion Tilton drove back to the house but did not alight He has sent Mrs Tilton money on several occasions Mrs Tilton went to Warrick notwithstanding Mrs Morse's denial and the sons are my au thority for the statement that she engaged rooms there for the summer, and that on Mr Tilton's return from Europe in August with his daughters the family will be reunited Rev Samuel B Halliday assistant pastor of Plymouth said he was not in the least sur prised at this development of the scandal He said some months ago when he heard Tilton had gone to see his wife with her consent that now we might look for the beginning of the end It is susceptible of only one explan ation one which will naturally be given to any act of such a poor crazy person who is putty in the hands of her husband whenever he is with her Her course at the beginning is at least such as destroys her weight as a witness for either side It proves that she is a weak insane woman and her statement on any subject is worthless—and that is all there is about it

New York April 16—Dispatches from London state that the Daily News prints the Tilton letter there to day which created a profound excitement

Beecher's Denial.

New York April 16—Mr Beecher was out of the city when Mrs Tilton's letter was made public and his whereabouts was not known save to a few friends The Tribune telegraph ed him a copy of the letter at a late hour to night and received the following dispatch in reply

WAVERLY N Y April 15

To Editor N Y Tribune—I confront Mrs Tilton's confession with explicit and absolute denial The testimony to her own innocence and mine which for four years she had made to hundreds in private and public before the court in writing and orally, I declare to be true and the allegations now made in contradiction of her uniform solemn and unva rying statement, hitherto made I utterly deny I declare her to be innocent of the great transgres sion [Signed] HENRY WARD BEECHER

Elmira, N Y April 16—Beecher was a passenger on the Erie road west this morning from Waverly All efforts to get an interview with him were unsuccessful He went direct to his hotel after the lecture last night and refused to see any one connected with the press He went from the hotel direct to the depot this morning When the train stopped a reporter sought an interview but Beecher refused to talk He lectures at Bath to night

An Interview with Beecher

Elmira N Y April 16—Henry Ward Beecher is at the Rathbun House A report er sought an interview and Beecher said "It will do you no good" The reporter then showed a morning paper and Beecher said "I don't think you have any more news than I have already received"

Pond his agent stated that the editorial that the absence of Tilton showed he had nothing to do with preparing Mrs Tilton's confession is absurd The charges of the Ch[illegible] [illegible] Tribune of April [illegible] [illegible] confession and [illegible] warned Tilton that any such attempt would not be welcome by the public It may be true Tilton has not acted directly but that he acts through [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Mr [illegible] fairly [illegible] truth of what was [illegible] [illegible] sion [illegible] the com[illegible] cence This would more than offset any [illegible]

[illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] with [illegible] [illegible]

Tilton Refuses to be Interviewed

[illegible] April 16 [illegible] Tilton lectured here this evening [illegible] problem of life [illegible] [illegible] but posi tively declined [illegible]

More Litigation

New York April 16 [illegible] further litigation will follow Mrs Tilton's confession [illegible] [illegible] will be brought up The first step it is believed will be taken by Plymouth church [illegible] members of the church will make a charge against Mrs Tilton [illegible] having slandered her pastor and the charge will be investigated by an examining committee who will report to the congregation It is not believed by mem bers of Plymouth church that Mrs Tilton will make any defense The trial of Beecher upon the action brought against him by Theo Tilton to recover $100 000 is held to be still in abeyance as the jury failed to agree and a new jury can be impaneled and the whole evidence brought out again with the addition of Mrs Tilton's confession

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

A very heavy frost fell in some parts of Walla Walla valley about a week ago and completely destroyed the fruit crop

The recent great rush of immigration to Eastern Washington has created a demand for farm horses in that section and good horses are scarce and bring good prices

The people of Waitsburg refused to take any part in the recent constitutional conven tion election They refused to open the polls and allowed the election to go by default At Prescott a similar course was pursued At the head of Dry creek the election was entirely ignored

Walla Walla [illegible] Mr [illegible] has been introducing another bill [illegible] the survey of the mouth of the Columbia [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Walla Walla [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] wheat [illegible] farmers [illegible] such a degree that it seems to vie with each other in making improvements in their buildings and the general appearance of their farms

WASHINGTON April 16

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Judge Whitaker [illegible] When the con [illegible] [illegible] an explanation He said that the pub [illegible] [illegible] by styling it was true [illegible] promised to follow him in a similar vein [illegible] was at ease and that it was useless to speak at all [illegible] He admitted that he [illegible] He had no accomplices and [illegible] His speech was a recital [illegible] history [illegible] nothing was set down [illegible] He did not ex pect to insist the president [illegible] Packard but [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Packard [illegible] [illegible] the army [illegible] Democrats [illegible] the army to uphold the Louisiana government—the presi dent in his message affirming the Democrats were right and the Republicans wrong He wished to vindicate himself and party on that point and to show that the constitution was with the Republi cans He had been hurt by the affirmation that he coveted and asked from the administration a seat in the supreme court Nothing in his life could justify the suspicion that he was resentful because the president did not yield to such solicitations as he was accused of making He hoped the associ ated press would help lift the opprobrium from him and from the senate by informing the world that he never asked the president to appoint him to any office whatever nor ever alluded to the judgeship in his presence No senator could say he ever appealed to him to further any personal aspiration of his own The president had abundant evidence that he had no personal feeling at the selection of supreme judge which he made The president has made but two ap pointments in Wisconsin which he would not have made

Davis of West Virginia submitted as a substitute for the resolution of Howe that submitted by him on the 26th of March calling upon the secretary of the treasury for information relative to balances due from collectors of revenue not in office what amount has been settled by compromise etc

Conkling said the two resolutions had nothing on earth to do with each other Would it not be as well to adopt the resolutions separately The adoption of the substitutes would thwart the reso lution of the senator from Wisconsin He did not want to stifle the inquiry proposed by the senator from Wisconsin There had been some scandal in regard to this New Orleans judge named

Eustice inquired what the scandal was?

Conkling said it was not necessary for him to go into that question The allegation had been made that there was connection between the judge named and the entering of nolle pros in certain cases That was the allegation though he did not believe it as he had not seen evidence to support it

After some further discussion the resolution of Mr Davis was also adopted as a separate proposi tion

Davis of Illinois, presented a petition for a branch mint at Chicago Referred

It was agreed to consider the calendar bills at 1 o'clock to morrow

Morrill Sargent Davis Cameron Matthews Kernan and Morgan were appointed a special com mittee to consider and report the plan for taking the next census

Grover from the public lands committee re ported back the bill to extend the time for the completion of the Northern Pacific rail road and moved its reference to the committee on railroads He said the public lands committee had fixed a time to hear this bill but hearing from the president of the company that the parties in terested had arrived at an understanding as to two bills it has been decided that both bills go to the committee on railroads for the purpose of consoli dation into one bill satisfactory to both The bills were referred to the railroad committee

Spencer from the military committee reported the bill favorably to provide for a military post to protect Black Hills settlers

Blaine rising to a personal explanation said that exaggerated accounts of his colloquy with Edmunds on the railroad bill had been sent out and when the Record disproved these dispatches the correctness of the Record was impugned Ed munds had told him this morning that the Record had every word of the colloquy He said the Record should be maintained as a faithful reporter of the senate proceedings and hoped a resolution would be introduced forbidding alteration of copy

BILLS INTRODUCED

By McDonald—To allow Indiana Illinois and Ohio to prosecute suits against the United States to recover money due on account of sales of public land

Sargent called up the bill regulating cadet mid shipmen and engineer appointments at Annapolis naval academy; passed as amended

Plumb called up senate bill for the relief of certain settlers on public lands passed

The senate resumed consideration of the bill in corporating the National Pacific Railroad and Tel egraph Company Conkling's amendment provid ing that the road shall not have the right of way through any Indian land was agreed to and the bill then passed 33 to 9

The bill extending the time for completion of the Northern Pacific reported by Mitchell from railroad committee was placed on the calendar

Adjourned

The finance committee nearly unanimously adopted a substitute for the repeal bill It makes legal tenders receivable at par for U S four per cents and that from and after the 1st of October they be receivable for customs and all other debts except where expressly otherwise stipulated and that after that date no legal tenders shall be retired for any reason

House.

On motion of Stenger the senate bill authorizing the issue of passports free to colored citizens going to Brazil passed

The bill to establish a permanent government for the District of Columbia was defeated ayes 94, nays 124 A motion was then made to recon sider The motion to reconsider was adopted and the bill was recommitted to the District commit tee The defeat of the bill was caused by the property qualifications clause for members of the council

Keefer introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution prohibiting con gress from appropriating money for the pay ment of any claims against the United States not created or authorized by law international treaty or award Referred

Robertson from the committee on Mississippi levees reported a bill providing for the organiza tion of the Mississippi river improvement commis sion for the improvement of the navigation of that river Printed recommitted

Cox asked unanimous consent that on Tuesday next, after the morning hour the house consider the business on the speaker's table for the purpose of passing the funding bill

Price objected, unless it be first referred to the judiciary committee since it involves important legal points

The house then went into committee of the whole on the postoffice appropriation bill

Blount considered that section a great outrage which gives special agents $5 per day for traveling expenses every day in the year besides a regular salary of $1 600 per year

After a long debate the amount for special agents was increased from $100 000 to $150 000 The pro vision reducing pay from $5 to $3 for special agents was rejected and Clymer's amendment allowing per diem only when actually traveling for the department was adopted

Banning introduced a bill authorizing the president to appoint a committee to arrange a treaty with the King of Corea Recess

The evening session was devoted to considera tion of pension bills

A number of bills were reported including one for the relief of the heirs of John Mourse late president and general in the army of the revolu tion after the passage of 70 bills, adjourned

Republican State Convention.

The Delegations Arriving—A Harmonious Gathering—The Candidates Developing—Who they are

[BY TELEGRAPH]

SALEM April 16 1878

Much more interest than usual is manifest ed in the Republican state convention Most of the delegations are here and general har mony prevails Several candidates for gov ernor are spoken of but there is little rivalry between their respective friends and hardly anything like a contest D P Thompson seems to have more active support than any other yet named though friends of I L Row land and Dr Watts are present E R Geary is also mentioned but there is not yet at this late hour to night no concentration of effort on anyone for governor A more lively con test is going on for the office of secretary of state The principal candidates so far are R P Earhart of Multnomah county and L T Williams of Douglass Each has active supporters and would be satisfactory Earhart seems at this time to have most strength in convention Candidates for treas urer are numerous and from the unusual attention paid to this office one would think it the leading place or most desirable place on the ticket Linn county offers three or four candidates for it and Marion two or three Stronger effort seems to be making for Ed. Hirsch of Marion for this office than for any other person These are only surface indications, The whole appearance may change to morrow Beekman of Jackson is somewhat spoken of as a candidate for governor or perhaps some one not yet named may receive the nomination Waite of Salem is receiving strong support for state printer and Carter of Corvallis is also talked of Gatch is most prominently mentioned for state superintendent

WATCH AND BE SOBER

NORTH YAMHILL April 16 8

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Seeing in THE DAILY OREGONIAN of March 30 a most excellent sermon on the evils of gambling I would like to offer a few thoughts as to the best practical remedy for the same 1st our duty from a scriptural standpoint The scriptures teach ex plicitly that the church shall not lay stumbling blocks before the world but that they shall be as a city set on a hill that cannot be hid showing forth the light of the gospel taking the lead in every reform of the day and abstaining from even every appearance of evil That there may be now and then a man that can play at all kinds of games as amusement or be a moderate drinker all his life or attend dances or theaters or horse racing or any of these things and never carry them to excess cannot be denied but where is the influence of such men and what effect does their example have on those who have not the strong nerve the iron will "the powerful self control of these strong men" Let us see what Paul says on that subject—1st Corinthians 8th ch 9 10 11 12 and 13th verses "But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to them that are weak for if any man see thee which has knowl edge sit at meat in the idol's temple shall not the conscience of him that is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish for whom Christ died But when ye sin so against the brethren and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. Wherefore if meat make my brother to offend I will eat no flesh while the world standeth lest I make my brother to offend" Now, I will make the broad assertion that I have never seen a whisky drinking dancing or card playing christian who was obeying the command of the gospel to bring forth fruit unto holiness and the end ever lasting life or that had any other than a very evil and damaging influence on those outside

Henry Ward Beecher once proposed to have the basement of his church fitted up with several billiard tables where the young men of respec table families could meet from time to time and enjoy a game of billiards for an hour or two and then they must listen to a sermon by the pastor and go home But his leading members said to him this will never do Our sons and neighbors sons will not go to the saloons to learn billiards but if you teach them to play billiards at the church and they once form a love for it they will then go to play where they cannot now be hired to go and would soon learn to drink and gamble, and all the associate evils connected with it Now, these men were right Hundreds and thousands of young men are lost every year by these influ ences cast around them by unthinking careless professors who themselves can sit at card tables, perhaps and not become gamblers But O what an influence The brother with a weak con science perishes by their example

Almost every week I hear men trying to justify themselves in gambling by the example set by the churches in our land by getting up church fairs and grab bags and selling kisses for 25 cents each, and setting up the prettiest girl in the community and letting all the loafers and foul-mouthed, dis sipated beings calling themselves men walk in and take a kiss and pay their 25 cents to help sup port the church.

All these things are brought up by the gambler as an offset or excuse for his own conduct Now what can be done in the case I say obey the Gospel and let the ax be laid at the root of the tree Do not try by lopping off a limb here and a branch there to do away with the evil but dig the whole thing out by the roots Renovate the church and society everywhere and take away the stum bling blocks from before the people set the exam ple for them and then we may hope to see our sons and daughters shun the vile thing as they would a venomous reptile and all these things would then be looked upon as a disgrace and re proach and no young man of honor and respecta bility would scarcely ever be seen going to these dens to learn such things. The Latest Trick of Trade.

[From the San Francisco Bulletin]

The Miller gives an account of a new trick where one would think it impossible to make a point For instance, good honest wheat is good the world over But it is not so good when it has gone through the hands of a manipulator who oils it This practice now obtains to a considerable extent on the conti nent It is stated that wheat which in its natural condition would weigh 123 Dutch pounds by the process of oiling will gain about six pounds or from ten to twelve per cent in weight more than there really is of wheat The gain on the part of the dishonest seller is from 20s to 25s per ton The apparent increase in the specific gravity is obtained by an outlay for rape oil of about four pence Wheat thus treated can never be made into good flour The practice is not confined to wheat alone but it is applied to all grain sold by weight Of course the adulteration can be easily detected But wheat oiled in this way is really a handsomer grain in appear ance than when no such application has been made It has been possible to adulterate flour and sugar But who ever heard before of a process for adulterating wheat before milling? In this country where wheat is so cheap it is not likely that the cheat will obtain very extensively But in times when the price is extremely high if there could be a gain of say $4 per ton as in Europe there might be a great deal of oiled wheat As a trick of trade this is the latest novelty

STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

It is altogether probable that on national issues—with a full vote the Republican party of Oregon would show a majority of ten to fifteen hundred votes But it will not do for the state convention which assembles to day to assume that this majority can certainly be gained with any ticket that may be nominated For the positions to be filled and in particular for the leading and more responsible places men must be named who are known to possess the quality of fitness to a degree that can not be questioned Tickets will be scrutinized Between the two parties there is a large body of non-partisan voters That party which names candidates whose fitness is most apparent and best acknowledged will gain the greater number of these Universally there is felt to be a necessity for more economical management of the affairs of the state, and for discountenance of the various devices under which emoluments of officials and general expenses of administration have been so greatly increased The new administration will take as an inheritance a large debt which has accumulated under the wasteful practices of the last eight or ten years It can be paid only through a management which shall lop off extravagant methods bring about a return to principles established with the government of the state, and apply the revenues to reduction of the debt rather than to schemes of official and legislative speculation

The men whom the Republican convention shall nominate should be men of affairs of known ability and probity whose reputation for success in private business gives assurance of capability for transaction of the business of state With such candidates success should not be doubtful But let it be thoroughly understood that the character of the candidates is to decide the election

Most of the nominations for the legislature have been made Both of the parties, in nearly all the counties, have named their tickets, and in some there are tickets of a third party The complexion of the legislature is likely to depend somewhat on various local considerations There is a fair chance that the Republicans may control it, unless, indeed, the activity exhibited by those who are trying to make everything contribute to the re-election of Senator Mitchell shall deprive the party of the support of a large class of Republicans, whose co operation is necessary to success This is the principal danger But these are matters to be considered elsewhere than in the state convention that now assembles The present duty is to nominate capable and fit men for state offices We hope to see candidates named whose character and standing will justify public approval and support The Democratic state ticket is, confessedly, a fair one If Republicans wish to be sure of their ability to defeat it, their convention must nominate men whose fitness is its own commendation

AMOUNT OF GREENBACKS

We print a short letter from Mr Lawson of Salem in which he attempts to maintain his statement that at the close of the war the amount of greenbacks or circulating paper currency of the country was nearly two thousand millions He has mixed matters badly There never was any law for the issue of above four hundred and fifty millions of greenbacks, and the whole issue never quite reached that sum The amount of greenbacks outstanding on the 30th June 1866 as shown by the annual report of the secretary of the treasury for the fiscal year ending at that date was $400,891 368 Much the greater part of the 'U S notes,' of which Mr Lawson finds so great abundance, were not circulating notes or legal tender at all, and never were used as money or as a substitute for money His statement includes what then were known as '7 30 treasury notes' and other securities, which constituted the greater part of the national debt The amount of greenbacks in circulation on the first of the present month, as shown by the secretary's monthly report just received was $362 6[illegible]-214, a reduction of but $38,235 164 since June 30, 1866 There has also been a considerable reduction of fractional currency, but it has been replaced with subsidiary silver coin If Mr Lawson desires to publish his views he should study his subject with deeper penetration than he has so far evinced He is mistaken in his statement that we had charged him with 'misrepresenting the financial condition of the country for any selfish purpose' On the contrary, we plainly intimated that he was writing without being acquainted with the subject, and in this judgment the public will be confirmed by his letter printed to day. Since there never was any law for the issue of above four hundred and fifty millions of greenbacks or legal tenders and since it is known to all who have any knowledge whatever of the subject that this sum never was exceeded it is pretty evident that the 'claim of the greenbackers' of which Mr Lawson speaks, namely, that the legal tender circulation at the close of the war was nearly two thousand millions, which amount ought now to be restored is not a sufficient basis on which to found a great party

At Richmond, Virginia, there is a theological discussion between Rev Mr Jasper (colored) who demonstrates from the scriptures that the sun revolves around the earth and several colored theologians who discredit Jasper's sacred texts. It waxes hotter and hotter every week, and it is not improbable that the governor will be obliged to call on the president for troops to suppress the animosity engendered between the contending parties; but the earth (or the sun) will continue to revolve just the same

Senator Howe's speech has precipitated the question of the choice of his successor in Wisconsin and he being counted out the prominent candidates are Gov Smith ex Gov Washburn ex-Gov Ludington ex Chief Justice Dixon, the Hon Philetus Sawyer, the Hon Horace [illegible] Judge Dyer and the inevitable dark horse

Col Pritchard of Michigan has printed another detailed narrative of the capture of Jeff Davis by his command in which the statement is reiterated that Mr Davis attempted to escape in the disguise of a woman This is in answer to recent [illegible] and to establish the truth of his story.

Congressman Chalmers has returned from a visit to his home in Mississippi with the news that the [illegible] Democratic party [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

A COMMITTEE ROOM BARGAIN

HOW MITCHELL GOT A REPORT ON HIS BILL—CONFIRMATION OF FORMER STATEMENTS

[Washington Letter March 31 signed 'Vancouver' to New York Times]

It would have been senatorial courtesy had it not been a bargain Had Senator Mitchell of Oregon, said to his colleagues on the railroad committee 'You will gratify me by giving me authority to report my Northern Pacific railroad bill' the senatorial courtesy might have constrained their assent and good men might have sighed over doing a wrong which the traditions and unwritten law of their body compelled them to do There is in the folly of the senatorial courtesy a quality of merit that saves it and its slaves from ultimate contempt But Mitchell drove a bargain with some of the members of his committee These I am tempted to name and to give them the brand that justly attaches to bargains that buy representatives of states to violate their reasons and consciences

Senator Mitchell's time will expire on the 3d of March 1879 Last summer he devised a plan to re elect himself for a second term It was a contrivance of double barrel d cunning It contained within itself an immense service to Jay Gould This would win if the other lost If his senatorial re election failed his retainer as a servant of the Union Pacific railroad would be secure He had the chance of two successes He was certain of pocketing one His plan was to take burglarious possession of the legislative necessities and interests of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company and distort and misshape them to his own interests The stockholders of that corporation were applicants to congress for an extension of the time to complete their road Secretly and in the dark without saying a word to its officers without conference with a single one of its stockholders he drafted and introduced into the United States senate a bill to extend for eight years the Northern Pacific Company's time to finish its road * * *

This bill the incarnation of impudence trickery falsehood and robbery was as thoroughly offensive to honor and decency inside of Mitchell's committee room as it was outside among its intended victims No senator inside of that committee except Mitchell would dare to go on the record of the senate as voting for that bill For the bill makes a new land grant in opposition to the determined policy of all political parties the bill robs lies and cheats without even a veil, the bill is a rascally contrivance and trick to save an unscrupulous politician from ruin at the hands of constituents who have found him out the bill is an aid to Jay Gould to destroy railroad competition across the continent and to perpetuate the gigantic monopoly he and his Californian associates now enjoy No United States senator with a character to lose will for one moment think of voting for this scandalous measure. But on Saturday the railroad committee of which Mitchell is chairman consented to let him report his bill! The explanation which is whispered through the senate end of the capitol is, that the consent was a necessity that Mitchell, who is a Republican had a fair chance of being re elected from Oregon if he could show his constituents even the success of a favorable report from his committee and that the importance of maintaining a Republican majority in the senate not only justified but required the support of his bill to the extent of a favorable recommendation of it by the committee

Circumstances confirm this explanation From what I have learned I have no doubt that Republican members of the senate railroad committee promised Mitchell that if he would assure them that a favorable report would re-elect him they would give it to him yet at the same time they told him explicitly that was all they would do—that when his bill came up in the senate they would vote against it Qualified as it thus was, their consent was not honorable nor right The doing of what they did should cost every man guilty of the arrangement his own re election It was a conspicuous wrong to honest legislation to vested rights, to the public interests, to the nation's development The temptation to pillory the parties to this committee room conspiracy to aid a falling public man at the expense of the commerce of the whole country and the vested rights of 10 000 stockholders is almost irresistible It is doubled by the feeling that the wrong will prove wholly unprofitable to the political party in whose behalf it was committed Mitchell will not be re elected

GREENBACKS AT THE CLOSE OF THE WAR

SALEM, April 15, 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

In noticing my article in the last Labor World, you differ so essentially from the claims of us greenbackers that I have revised the question of figures, and will give you the result and my authorities On the 1st of January, 1866, the secretary of the treasury reported that the public debt amounted to $2 807 310 357 09 A part of this debt consisted of currency both whole and fractional, forming a circulating medium in active use as follows

U S notes of January 30 1861	$ 431 178,670 64
U S notes of January 30, 1865	432 687 966 00
U S notes of October 30 1865	428 160,569 00
U S notes of January 1, 1866	426,231,189 95
Total	$1 718 258 395 59
Fractional and postal currency	100 058 595 62
Grand total	$1,818 317 191 42

Appleton's cyclopedia for 1865 pages 335 and 337, agrees with the treasurer's report and says that the debt nearly a billion and a half, was at this time used as a circulating medium This money, with the gold silver and postal and fractional currency gave the people abundant means to move their business and enterprises with profit

Another authority I have before me, claims that in 1865-6 the circulating medium in greenbacks, without other moneys amounted to $1,908,647 400 This authority refers to the report of the U S treasury department, Dec 31st, 1866. I therefore use the round number as $2 000 000,000

The same work says that the circulating medium exclusive of coin (now held much in reserve for resumption purposes) in 1877 was only $694 828 294 and refers to the reports of the U S treasury department January 1s 1877

The $1 300 000 000 I spoke of in that article was not the amount of contraction but the amount paid by the people to the bondholders as interest on the bonds which bonds I say the country ought never to have made but let the legal tender money created during the war float as money for the people without interest and thus get rid of the war taxes still imposed upon the people after 13 years of peace

I think you owe it to me to publish this refutation of your charge that I would knowingly misrepresent the financial condition of the country for any selfish purpose Very respectfully G W LAWSON

Not Complimentary to Democratic Leadership

[Beriah Brown in Seattle Dispatch]

We well remember the last political convention of any party in which we bore a part eight years ago in Albany Oregon, a platform was adopted practically repudiating the public debt Every candidate nominated was required to endorse the platform as a condition to his nomination and not one believed in it and each spent the entire canvass in trying to explain it away The only object sought was to pander to a popular prejudice created by reading Brick Pomeroy's paper thousands of which were then circulated through Oregon and it succeeded as a temporary expedient to the great future detriment of the Democratic party

Wherefore get Land

[From the Chicago Times.]

Land ownership is an essential element of good citizenship And now after the era of savings banks which have burst railways that have collapsed of life insurance frauds and myriads of other business failures which were spawned of inflation and are dead in the [illegible] [illegible] good lands Three generations hence [illegible] will be as rare as [illegible] are to day Real estate is real estate [illegible] be found to be in the United States [illegible] the most satisfactory [illegible] government controlling thing which a citizen may possess

[illegible] The position of attorney for the railroad may have proven profitable, but it has entirely destroyed Mitchell's influence in the senate which might have been exerted for the benefit of his state during the short period that the Republicans will have a majority in that body

PORTLAND April 16 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I have just learned that a prominent educator of this city has addressed many of the warm personal friends of Prof T M Gatch and also many of the delegates to the Republican state convention and assured them that Mr Gatch is not a candidate for the nomination for state superintendent This gentleman [illegible] apprehension of the fact Prof Gatch has never withdrawn his name neither has he taken any pains to make himself [illegible] Prof Gatch [illegible] positively that his name is not withdrawn [illegible] is a firm friend of the party and has written in the interest of that party But he has been misinformed concerning the withdrawal of Prof Gatch

It is to be hoped that while [illegible] strength or weaken [illegible] the delegates to the convention will elect the best man [illegible] ANOTHER EDUCATOR

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 17 1878

CITY.

To Singers and Musicians —In The Oregonian of yesterday morning mention was made of the arrival in this city of Mr W H Kinross who came to Portland for the purpose of securing if possible a delegation of singers and musicians to take part in the great festival which is announced to come off in the Mechanics Pavilion on the 25th and 30th of May Mr Kinross wishes us to announce that all singers and musicians of Portland who have any desire to participate in the festival are requested to meet at Morse Palace of Art, on First street this evening at 8 o clock, sharp He will then have an opportunity of explaining more fully what is expected of this state Should such a delegation be organized and conclude to visit San Francisco we understand that it is the intention to give a grand vocal and instrumental concert in this city, the funds realized to be applied toward defraying the necessary expenses of paying fares to and fro Mr Kinross came prepared for the work having brought with him all the necessary music

Dr. Smith s Lecture —Dr Matthew Hale Smith, whose fame as an author lecturer and divine is national, delivered a lecture in Taylor street church last evening to an audience of perhaps 250 persons His subject was "Humorous Folks ' and the lecture consisted almost entirely of humorous anecdotes told in a style peculiarly interesting However sound philosophy was so ingeniously mingled with the stories that the listener received solid instruction while convulsed with laugh ter. His remarks upon what we may term the "science of humor' were interesting and full of good common sense Dr Smith appears to about sixty years of age and is considerably above the average size His appearance upon the platform is good and he speaks distinctly and without hesitation but in a conversational manner His auditors were delighted last night. The next lecture of the series will be given on Friday evening

Petroleum ?—Upon the farm of Mr E. Hayes, some three miles above the falls on the west bank of the Willamette there is a muddy spring, on the top of the standing water in which a greasy substance has been seen to rest The tenant on the place, Mr. Woodruff has been prospecting it, and on digging a foot below the surface and stirring up the mud found that the oily matter floated so thickly on the surface as to be easily collected with a spoon Passing this through a piece of flannel, a deposit of mud and oil is left, which burns as readily as crude petroleum and has about the same smell A sample of this mud and oil was brought here yesterday, and we tested it and found it to burn freely. It might be profitable for some one who has had experience in the oil business to examine this spring Is there any such person in the city ?

Revival Meetings —A correspondent writing from Fair Oaks, Douglas county under date of April 13th, send the following "It may be of interest to some of the many readers of The Oregonian to learn that the Baptist church at this place has for nearly two weeks been enjoying an excellent revival conducted by elders J C Richardson and S E Martin. Seven were received by baptism, five by relation and one by letter There was a good deal of interest when the meeting closed. A number profess to trust in the Saviour who have not yet united with the church. During the meeting at this place Elder Richardson preached several times to the Oakland Baptist church, where two united by letter and six requested Christians to pray for them."

Married.—At the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church in Seattle, W T, April 4, by Rev. Isaac Dillon, D D, Mr Charles E. Sears, of Port Blakely, W T and Miss Ellen M. Smith, eldest daughter of Mr Almon Smith of this city. We learn from parties present that the above wedding came off in very graceful style. Mr Sears has been for several years the efficient foreman of the extensive mills at Port Blakely and is deservedly popular among all his acquaintances. We congratulate him on having secured such a valuable prize, and hope that he and his estimable bride may have a bright and prosperous voyage together over life's sea, meeting with no squalls save little ones. Miss Smith formerly resided in Portland.

An Exile.—Sam Bernheim was arrested night before last for drunkenness, and for conducting himself in a disorderly manner, and was fined $10 by Judge Adams yesterday in the police court. He was unable to pay the fine and was accordingly sent below to work it out at $2 per day. Confinement is not congenial to Sam's independent spirit, and he begged the captain on duty to liberate him, promising, conditionally, that he would leave Portland and forever stay away He was released, and, it is said, left the city this morning.

St. Stephen's Chapel.—The following are the services for the remainder of the week Service every evening at 7 o'clock, this (Wednesday) and Thursday mornings, at twenty minutes of 9; Good Friday, at 11 o'clock and Holy Saturday or Easter Even at 9 o'clock, with baptism. Sunday next, being Easter day, morning service at 6 o'clock litany and holy communion at 11 o'clock and at half past 3 full choral service, with the apostolic rite of confirmation. Free seats

Republican State Convention —The Republican state convention will convene at Salem this forenoon for the purpose of placing in nomination a state ticket—congressman, governor, secretary of state, treasurer, printer, and superintendent of public instruction An experienced reporter has been detailed to attend the convention, and readers of The Oregonian may confidently look to this journal for a full and reliable report of the proceedings.

Exciting Runaway —The usual runaway took place yesterday afternoon This time it was a one horse express wagon, on Second street, which, arriving at the corner of Taylor was turned completely over, the driver miraculously escaping injury There was a large crowd and immense excitement, but fortunately no great damage

Mails and Express —Mails for San Francisco per steamer Geo W Elder will close this (Wednesday) evening at 9 o'clock Registered mail will close at 4 o'clock P M All express matter left in W F. & Co s office later than 4:30 P. M. to-day will not catch the steamer Letters should be in that office before 4 30 A. M. to-morrow.

New Machinery —Mr John Milne the miller, received by the Barracouta new burrs and mill machinery for his place at Hillsboro. They come direct from Scotland The great increase in business necessitates the improvements. Mr. Milne ships large quantities of oatmeal to San Francisco monthly

Being Removed —The building which stood at the southeast corner of Morrison and First streets is being removed to another and it is hoped a more remote location as it is one of the most unsightly buildings ever moved In 1853 it was built for a bakery and is now 25 years old.

Complimentary —Under date of April 15th a gentleman writing from Seattle incidentally pays the following compliment to this paper "The Oregonian is a splendid newspaper in all its departments, and if I may judge is a growing necessity on the sound as elsewhere

On the Muscle —The Undine boat club of Salem have sent to LaChapelle for terms on two double scull boats The club have challenged Portland or others for a four oared contest and it looks like business with them for the coming season

Mail Boxes —The postoffice department has received three iron boxes which are to be hung at certain points in the city where they will be put up as decided upon by Postmaster

U. S. Circuit Court —Judge Deady will decide this morning the demurrers in the Dalles cases the Coos Bay W Crocker, and Barrow v Steele

THE WIDE WEST

THE TRIAL TRIP OF THE NEW ELEGANT AND COMMODIOUS STEAMER

Yesterday forenoon at 10 o'clock the Oregon Steam Navigation Company s new steamer Wide West which has just been finished and furnished in a most elegant style, made her trial trip Only a few invited guests and members of the press were on board At the appointed hour the Wide West swung out from the O S N Co s dock and steamed down the river Ten minutes run brought the steamer to the foot of Swan Island. Arrangements were made for having the whole boat photographed at some convenient spot down the river. A point nearly opposite the foot of Swan Island was selected for a sitting where the steamer rounded to and was made fast to the north bank of the river At that point the channel is narrow Joseph Buchtel the well known photographer was placed in a small boat along with his apparatus and conveyed to the island and in a very short time secured two splendid side view negatives of the fine craft. When printed and mounted these photographs will be about 11x14 inches and will no doubt give a splendid idea of the workmanship of the Wide West

THE COLLATION

High noon having arrived lunch was declared in order The guests were invited into the elegantly finished and appointed cabin where was spread a bountiful collation quite sufficient to tempt and appease the appetite of an epicure S G Reed Esq the generous host who never fails to do the honors with a liberal hand did not forget the drinkables one of the tables being crowded with a choice array of wines The trip and bracing breeze which came sweeping up from the lordly Columbia had the effect to sharpen the appetites of all and the viands and beverages did not go begging long Half an hour or more was spent in the agreeable discussion of lunch when once more the whistle sounded the lines were cast off and the Wide West started on the return trip With streamers gaily fluttering in the wind the handsome boat steamed past the city front ascending nearly to the foot of Ross Island when she turned prow and came along side the dock and was made fast

THE CABIN ETC

There is no steamer afloat on the Pacific Coast which has been finished and furnished in a more costly and elaborate style than the Wide West No pains have been spared and no expense omitted to make the steamer the queen of these waters The O S N Co are proverbial for building and equipping fine crafts and in this effort they have fairly eclipsed all preceding ones The dimensions are Length 215 feet beam 39 feet hold 8 feet The Wide West can carry with ease and perfect safety 600 tons of wheat and from 800 to 1 000 tons of ordinary freight She has a full cabin fore and aft with a great number of state rooms and nine upon the hurricane deck The ladies and gentlemen s cabins are perfect models of beauty and elegance The floors are laid with rich heavy Brussels carpet of handsome design while the walls and doors leading into the staterooms are beautifully finished and set off with bronze and panel work Excellent workmanship and superb taste have been expended on every minor detail. Nearly all the staterooms contain two beds—one double and one single Large mirrors are placed at each end of the cabin and chandeliers swing at regular intervals along in the center from the ceiling No one can walk through the cabin and survey the taste and elegance so profusely expended at every turn without involuntarily exclaiming 'Isn t it superb!'

THE MACHINERY

Of the Wide West deserves more than a passing mention The large boiler was put up at the Willamette Iron Works, and is a credit to that establishment It is 7 feet in diameter 33 feet long and has 336 tubes, each 2½ inches in diameter The boiler is what is known as Gates Sectional Boiler —can carry with perfect ease and safety 125 pounds of steam to the square inch and is sufficiently large to generate steam enough to run the engines at full stroke all the time The engines were put up last winter at the large foundry and machine shop of Pursey Jones & Co of Wilmington Delaware, under the personal supervision of Mr John Gates chief engineer for the O S N Co. The cylinders are 28 inch bore and 8 feet stroke The engines worked like a perfect charm yesterday and sent the steamer forward through the water at the rate of about 20 miles per hour The

HYDRAULIC STEERING GEAR

Which was invented by Mr Gates is certainly a very great improvement By means of hydraulic pressure from the boiler the steamer is steered without the necessity of handling the wheel A lever is placed directly in front of the pilot wheel and by simply pushing it either to the right or the left the wheel is caused to revolve slowly or rapidly as may be desired and in that manner the rudders are worked So perfect and complete is the arrangement that a child could steer the largest steamer as easily as two men One great advantage is that the lever can be set so as to cause the steamer to go forward as straight as an arrow, or move in a curve This invention is a most important one to navigation its practical use being observable at a glance Mr. Gates has applied for and will doubtless obtain a patent.

The woodwork of the Wide West was done under the personal supervision of Mr John Holland, the chief builder for the company while Mr Gates had charge of the boiler and machinery and drew the model and plans An inspection of the boat will indicate how well these gentlemen have done their work The

of the new boat has been fixed by Mr Gates at 20 knots per hour under favorable circumstances Her average speed however will probably be about 18 miles From the foot of Swan Island to a point opposite the water works above the city—a distance of about six miles—was made yesterday by her in just 23 minutes However this was not the steamer s best time as she slowed down while passing along in front of the city

The new steamer will be placed at once on the route between Portland and the Cascades

Yesterday afternoon the Wide West was moored at the foot of Pine street and an invitation having been extended the public to visit and inspect her, admiring crowds were pouring to and fro up to 5 P M

Fruit Crop Damaged —A correspondent writing from Hood river under date of the 15th sends the following unwelcome intelligence of the damaging effects of the frosts in that section Heavy frost Saturday night that killed the tomatoes potatoes and much small fruit Last night the ground froze three quarters of an inch thick The walnut trees are draped in black and withered leaves The almonds peaches, cherries plums apples and every kind of fruit seem to be dead I am told it is the third spring of the kind in fifteen years It is a day of darkness and gloom in this little valley Everything is frozen to death except the worthless weed

Benefit L R S —We are informed by the ladies that Rev Matthew Hale Smith has kindly consented to lecture for the benefit of the ladies relief society on Saturday evening next The terms of admission will be given here after The subject will be "Our Minister's Wife" and will no doubt be a most entertaining and amusing lecture

AN APRIL SONG

Sweet April when you try with your sun hue to air your sky
Your wind breathing low and your birds that sing together
Your misty blue that fills the hollows of the hills
You can make a day of most enchanting weather.

But on this lovely morning you laugh for your adorning
The presence of my only love my darling near
So you have no need to try with your smiles to deck your sky
To make this day the fairest of the year

Yet, April do your best with a soft wind from the west
With sunlight on the springing grass and the blue above
Let your singing birds sing loud and your flowers ope proudly
So may you serve the lady of my love

O month of change! though any day of thine be rainy
Or your scowling east wind may bring gray weather—
Each is a welcome day for it takes me nearer May
When my only love and I shall be together
—Edwin N Lewis in Scribner for April

A GOOD BOOK KEEPER

San Antonio (Texas Express]

We met Old Mose yesterday and noticed that there was a dark cloud hovering over his despondent brow

"What's the matter Uncle?" we asked

He shook his head as if he had nothing left to live for and said

"Is gin a peck uv truble De Lord knows where dis heah is gwine to end I se done gib it up."

What is the trouble about

After several sighs that seemed to come up from the bottom of his boots he explained that he was secretary of the local colored lodge of Free Masons that he was the custodian of the books that for keeping the books he was paid by the lodge $10 a month that every Saturday night after the lodge was over he carried the books home and turned them over to the 'ole ooman Aunt Dinah "for safe keeping and she stowed them away in her trunk along wid her fishal flowers and fedders and finery and sich" He also stated that he had forgotten to mention to Dinah that he was receiving $10 a month for keeping the books and he had also forgotten to turn over to her the aforesaid $10 but had squandered the same for his own little personal expenses, that some unknown demon had informed Dinah that Old Mose was getting $10 for keeping the books and consequently, when he remarked the other evening hat it was time for him to go to the lodge and requested her to hand him out the books instead of doing so she sat down on the trunk and positively refused to turn over the documents until he had paid over $10 When he told her the $10 was his'n for keeping the books she retorted "Who's been keepin dem ar books? Hasn't I been keepin de books in de trunk all de time? Han out dem funds wats comin to me for keepin de books"

"What did you tell her, Mose?"

"I tole her I wanted dem books to keep de minits in dat she didn't know how to keep de books but she 'lowed she was gwine to show me she knowed how to keep de books, and, foah God! she's a keepin em De lodge has pinted a committee to investigate my accounts, and dar she is squattin on de trunk, holdin out her han for de $10 I se done spent. Doesn't yer know somebody who wants $10 wuff of whitewashin done in advance?

QUIPS AND CRANKS

It is estimated that there will be a deficit of a million pounds in the English budget this year How much ought their old budget to weigh anyhow?

A land speculator, in describing a lake in one of the western states, says it is so clear and so deep that by looking in it you can see them making tea in China

Philosophers say that closing the eyes makes the sense of hearing more acute A wag suggests that this accounts for the many eyes that close in our churches on Sunday

The New York Herald says "If this thing keeps on the whole Democratic party will be around with Moffett punches The Herald must first show that they are better than Bourbon punches

What a beautiful example of simplicity in dress is shown some of the followers of fashion by that domestic animal the cat which rises in the morning, washes its face with its right hand, gives its tail three jerks and is ready dressed for the day

New York Graphic Paterfamilias (to his eldest son who is at Princeton)— George these are uncommonly good cigars I can't afford to smoke such expensive cigars as these "George (grandly)—"Fill your case—fill your case, Gov ner!

"The Man from Omaha"

[San Francisco Bulletin]

The man from Omaha arrived in town last week, and was to be seen last evening on Van Ness avenue taking a promenade He had evidently been so busy since his arrival that he had not been able to scrape the dirt of travel from his clothes But he was happy He sauntered along at a slow gait, turning about now and then and sometimes waving back and forth like a wind shaken reed 'Whoop!' he cried "I am a son of a gun from Omaha, you bet I came out here last week, and I've got into the most blasted state in the world Everybody is trying to crawl up my back, but, cuss 'em, they can't Look here, old un (addressing a gentleman passing), do you want to crawl over me? You can't do it yer know, for I m a son of a gun from Omaha. Whoop!" The last seen of the man from Omaha was a limp figure clinging fondly to a lamp post, uttering faint whoops and struggling with the rising tide of his emotions.

English Crops and Markets.

LONDON, April 16—The Mark Lane Express says the present aspect of wheat does not appear to give rise to any complaints. The acreage sown may be taken at about average while a somewhat larger breadth than usual has been put under corn Supplies of English wheat have been moderate in London The principal country markets show a weaker tone of trade consequent upon the diminished political apprehensions have been indicated in a decline of about a shilling per quarter As millers continue to operate sparingly their requirements being light and the weather not adverse to future crop, the time has now come when America and Russia will resume their usual places in the list of countries whence we derive our principal supplies of red wheat. Last Monday's arrival list showed an importation of about 37,000 quarters wheat, nearly all of which was furnished by these countries, but at present interest centers principally in America Seeing that requirements of southern Europe will probably relieve this country of a very large proportion grain from the Black Sea, an unusual number of grain laden steamers from Odessa and southern Russian ports having been diverted to Marseilles the demand of the past week has been strictly of a consumptive character at a shilling per quarter less money, the decline being attributed to the pacific aspect of political affairs with small arrivals at ports of call during the past week The floating cargo in wheat ruled steady without quotable change in values Maize with few arrivals advanced fully 6d per quarter

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.
His Wonderful Success
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
Chronic and Difficult Diseases.
He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS
public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness

DR BRENAN
has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE
over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual This accounts in part for this great professional success

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand and the patient need not fear the result.

DR BRENAN
will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice Each letter requiring advice or list of questions must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable

THE DOCTOR
has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION.
Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENAN the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN]

A Disgusting Scandal from Michigan

CHICAGO, April 17—The Times has a special from Ann Arbor Michigan alleging that Bishop McCloskey [illegible] the most prominent Episcopalian in Michigan has been guilty of criminal intimacy with a young man named [illegible] finally married to a young man named Bannister that he wrote burning love letters, which fell into the hands of her husband that McCloskey has now fled the country having sailed last week

CHICAGO, April 18—The Times this morning has a long account of the alleged improper conduct and scandalous proceedings of Episcopal Bishop Allen McCloskey of Michigan The substance of the story is that for a long time he has cohabited with a young girl whom he has educated and supported and whom he recently married to a young man of Detroit named Bannister who discovered the guilt of McCloskey, and indirectly through him the matter has reached the public. The proof of the story lies in a number of amorous and broadly suggestive letters written by McCloskey to the girl Fanny Richards in his sudden resignation to the committee of the diocese in the confused manner which he made to the committee in his acknowledged intimacy with the girl, in his identification of some of the letters in his sudden departure for Europe, and in the silence of the dignitaries of the Episcopal church, who, although they do not affirm the story, refuse to deny it. On the other hand, the stories are so little authenticated that they can not be said to be more than rumors at present. Bishop McCloskey denies the whole story declares he resigned on account of ill health and old age and points to a life of rectitude for 74 years as his vindication It is insinuated though not urged in explanation of the letters that he was becoming deranged on some points and that he wrote them while out of his head The matter has been kept a profound secret and leaked out gradually There are said to be more facts lying back but the Detroit papers publish nothing about the scandal and no interviews hitherto have elicited any facts there.

Army Changes.

CHICAGO April 16—Gen J W Forsyth of Sheridan's staff leaves here in June for Walla Walla Washington territory to take a position under Gen Howard as lieut col 1st cavalry Gen Drum assist adjt gen of this division goes to Washington May 1st.

Return of the Postal Committee.

FERNANDINO April 16—The postal party arrived here yesterday, had a reception from the mayor and citizens and leave to day for Jacksonville on the way home

The Postmaster-General's Reception.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla, April 17—Postmaster-General Key and party have arrived and will be given a reception to-night by our citizens

Lynching in Alabama.

HUNTSVILLE April 17—A mob has just lynched Mike White and two negroes, who assassinated Shrenberger on Saturday.

Women's Baptist Missionary Society.

NEW YORK, April 17—The seventh annual meeting of the Women's Baptist Missionary Society to-day was numerously attended. The society has about one thousand auxiliaries and children's bands The report of the foreign department showed the society now supported 25 missionaries, aided 37 schools, and supported 25 Bible women, all in Burmah, India, China and Japan

Ex-Gov. Moses on His Way South.

NEW YORK, April 17—Upon the withdrawal of the writ of habeas corpus in the case of ex-Gov Moses in court to day the prisoner was placed under the control of Sergeant Kelly, of the central office, who delivered him to the agents of the state of South Carolina, who had first arrested him, and it is supposed he is now on his way south

Lynched.

NASHVILLE April 17—Ben Evans and Eph Hall (colored) who assinated Geo Shoeburger at Huntsville, Alabama, last Friday at the instigation of Mike White a white man, and White himself were publicly lynched at that place to day before an immense assemblage the jail having been forced. Both negroes confessed the crime

Funeral of Wm. M. Tweed.

NEW YORK, April 17—The funeral of Wm M. Tweed took place to-day from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Douglas Only personal friends of the family or of Tweed were admitted to the house, where the burial service of the Episcopal church was read by Rev Dr. Price, the clergyman who officiated at the wedding of Tweed thirty years ago After services the remains were taken to Greenwood Cemetery, followed by about a dozen coaches containing mourners

WASHINGTON CITY.

Final Adjournment of Congress—Lively Work on the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON April 17—The senate resolution to day proposing a final adjournment of congress on the 10th of June, took the house completely by surprise, but was quickly perceived to be capable of being used as the effective means of smothering the tariff bill, the leading opponents of which immediately demanded the yeas and nays on Fernando Wood's motion for its reference to the ways and means committee Nearly all Republicans and all anti tariff bill Democrats with only two or three exceptions, united in sufficient force to defeat this motion, and during the subsequent long parliamentary struggle they maintained a majority of 35 or 40 votes against all efforts to refer or amend the senate resolution Finally however, they allowed the question to go over until to-morrow when it will come up immediately after reading the journal and as soon as filibustering terminates a vote must be taken upon the motion to concur without amendments There is of course every indication at present that this motion will prevail, in which case the tariff bill may be considered the same as absolutely dead for this session and for the whole congress also, as next session will be too short to admit of the possibility of action upon it. A majority of the Democrats aside from their views on the tariff question greatly dislike the stand taken by the minority of their number as the concurrence in the senate resolution will to a large extent place it in the power of the senate to defeat the house measures by non action without apparently assuming any responsibility therefor and will also inevitably compel the house to forego the consideration of some pet measures of the Democratic majority by reason of evident lack of time to pass them and the regular appropriation bills also Earnest efforts, therefore, will be made in caucus to-night to devise some means of rallying all the Democratic members to oppose its early adjournment and to this end a proposition will be offered for a formal postponement of the tariff bill until next December

The Railroad Commission

WASHINGTON April 1[illegible]—The bill reported from the house railroad committee to-day which was referred to the committee of the whole house and made special order for May 15 to establish a board of Pacific railroad commissioners provides that Charles Francis Adams Jr of Massachusetts Albert Fink of Kentucky [illegible] and their successors [illegible] hereafter appointed are hereby constituted [illegible] to be known as [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] shall hold office [illegible] appoint three [illegible] who shall [illegible] three [illegible] or otherwise [illegible] due of the [illegible] shall to like [illegible]
